

Supervisor Academy Update

Arlette Lambert, MSW
CFSR Coordinator

August 8, 2018

Supervisor Academy

Tier 1	Welcome to Supervision - C
	Introduction to Supervision - C
	Nuts & Bolts of Supervision - C
Tier 2	Using Data to Improve Practice & Performance - B
	Using Data to Improve Practice & Performance with Community/Partners - C
	3rd Dimension of Supervision: CRM/Meeting - O
	Reasonable Efforts: What Supervisors Need to Know - O
	NC's OSR Case Review Process: What to Expect - O
Tier 3	Critical Thinking in Child Welfare - O
	Fostering Connections II - O
	Premature Case Closure - O
	Secondary Trauma - B
	Saving Power! - C
	Supporting Effective Documentation - O

O = Online
C = Classroom
B = Blended

* New courses 2017 as part of the PIP

Supervisor Academy

Currently consists of three courses:

- Nuts and Bolts of Child Welfare Supervision
Policy & Practice Applications
- Using Data to Improve Practice and Performance
CQI at the practice level with social workers
- Using Data to Improve Practice and Performance with Community Partners
CQI at the macro level

45 Graduates

Statewide Implementation

Beginning in January 2019

Target Audience:

- Child Welfare Supervisors AND Program Managers/Administrators

All courses available to supervisors will be the
"Supervisor Academy"

Beginning Courses

Introduction to Supervision for Child Welfare Services and Nuts and Bolts of Child Welfare Supervision will be paired.

- The class that begins Introduction to Supervision for Child Welfare Services should remain together as a formal cohort through the completion of Nuts and Bolts of Child Welfare Supervision.

Advanced Courses

Using Data to Improve Practice and Performance and Using Data to Improve Practice and Performance with Community Partners will be combined into 1 data course.

- Elective and voluntary

Be on the Lookout...

Training Matters

June 2018

Orientation to the Supervisory Academy

Dear County Director Letter

October 2018

ncswlearn.org

Upcoming PIP Activities

Modified policies statewide – September 1, 2018

Revised training curricula – September 1, 2018

– CPS Intake, CPS Assessments, CPS In-Home Services, & Permanency Planning

Transfer of Learning – September 1, 2018

TA model – December 31, 2018

– Support Permanency Planning

Court convenings – December 31, 2018

Permanency Performance Profiles – November 1, 2018

Promotional information regarding GAP – December 31, 2018

3 Public Input Sessions

- August 15th in Salisbury
- August 22nd in North Wilkesboro
- September 19th in Sylva