

DSS Director

Graham County is accepting applications for a Director of Social Services position. This position serves as the executive officer for the Department of Social Services and requires work in a wide range of general management functions to ensure the Agency's adherence to all applicable local, state and Federal laws. The Director will manage a staff of 25 employees and will direct employees and their programs throughout the Agency. The position requires interaction with the community, local governing bodies, other government agencies and other officials. Sound judgment, analytical skills, strong leadership and a working knowledge of social work principles and practices are a must. Due to the size and limited resources of the community the ability to effectively manage the Agency budget and expenditures is also necessary.

Job Requirements:

Master's degree in social work and two years of supervisory experience in the delivery of client services; or a bachelor's degree in social work and three years supervisory experience in the delivery of client services, one of which must have been in Social Services; or graduation from a four year college or university and three years of supervisory experience, two of which must have been in Social Services; or an equivalent combination of training and experience. Graham County is an equal opportunity employer.

To apply a completed State Application Form (PD-107), Resume, Letter of Interest and OFFICIAL TRANSCRIPTS of all degrees must be received by Graham County Department of Social Services, Attn: Melissa Blevins, P.O. Box 1878, Robbinsville, NC 28771 or email application to melissa.blevins@grahamcounty, no later than March 1, 2019 at 5:00 P.M. Graham County is an equal opportunity employer.
